The HKIAP thanks our members' continuous support. Physical events will be resumed this year. We have invited international and local speakers to the scientific meetings. In addition to lectures, slide/case sessions will be held in both the spring and fall scientific meetings. An online essential recap will also be offered for each scientific meeting re-running selected lectures. We are excited to announce that special lectures from the International Liaison of Pathology Presidents will be held during the fall scientific meeting and the Johns Hopkins 2023 cytopathology course (co-organized with the Hong Kong Society of Cytology) will be available to our members. We look forward to seeing you in the meetings!

Spring Scientific Meeting: 15th – 16th April, 2023

Fall Scientific Meeting: 28th – 29th October, 2023

On-site at Postgraduate Education Centre, Prince of Wales Hospital, Shatin, or online essential recaps after the on-site event

HKIAP AGM will be held at Postgraduate Education Centre at 11:30 on 29th October.

Programme on pages 2 to 5 and registration form on page 6
